

The Architectural and Archaeological Society for the County of Buckingham

The County Museum, Church Street, Aylesbury, Bucks HP20 2QP

The Buckinghamshire Archaeological Society is the county's premier society, not just for archaeology, but also local history, architecture, natural history, and historic buildings.

The objectives of the Society include: The defence and protection of the county's historic environment, the preservation of important local archives concerned with the history and archaeology of the county, support for the County Museum whose collections were started by the Society, and an active watch where planning issues affect the heritage of the county.

The Society's Library and Archives at the County Museum are open for research by appointment. Please phone 01296 397200 (and leave a message if no answer) or e-mail help@bucksas.org.uk to make an appointment.
