

A HUGHENDEN VICAR AND HIS PERAMBULATIONS.

The Reverend John Batchler, A.M., was presented to the Vicarage of Hitchenden, or Hugendon,—now Hughenden,—in 1713 by Philip, Lord Stanhope, eldest son of Philip Stanhope, second Earl of Cheserfield:* He was Vicar for fifty-two years, from his appointment, in the last year of the reign of Queen Anne, until his decease in 1765, the fifth year of King George III.

Mr. Batchler was evidently a man of vigour. He did things, and when done, like Captain Cuttle, he “made a note of it.” He has left behind the record of many interesting events in the parish during his time of office, for he seems to have made it a regular custom to make an entry or memorandum in odd pages of the Parish Register to record any event of importance which he was responsible for in the performance of his duties. The memoranda are entered in Registers III. and IV., and for some part are in his own handwriting, but for the most part in the hand of clerk or some person evidently of education.

The date of his presentation, Aug. 11, 1713, must have found him a young man at the University,—evidently at an interesting period! In Register 3, under christenings, is the entry:—

Ric<sup>d</sup> the son of John Batchler Vic<sup>r</sup> and Mary his wife, born at Cambridge Aug. 18, and baptised there Aug. 27.

* The Manor of Hughenden passed in 1709 to Lady Elizabeth Dormer, eldest daughter and co-heir of Charles, Earl of Carnarvon. She married, as his third wife, Philip, second Earl of Chesterfield. Their eldest son Philip, Lord Stanhope, and third Earl of Chesterfield succeeded. The latter bequeathed it to his youngest son, Sir William Stanhope, Kt. of the Bath, who in 1738 sold the estate to Charles Savage, a London merchant.

The first perambulation of the bounds of his parish took place in May, 1714. The Perambulation is entered in full at the end of the third volume of the Registers of Christenings, Marriages, and Burials. It is in the handwriting of an educated person, scholarly and clear, and very fairly easy to read.

* The perambulation began at the most southern point of the parish, the boundary stone on the road High Wycombe—Hughenden, and proceeded westward, where the boundary touches Chepping Wycombe, then West Wycombe, and thus on, keeping the adjoining parishes always on the left. The distance would be quite fifteen miles, and fairly rough walking up and down hill. The parishes lying on the bounds of Hughenden are Chepping Wycombe, West Wycombe, Bradenham, Princes Risborough, Monks Risborough, Great Hampden, Great Missenden, Little Missenden, and Penn.

† The "crosses" so frequently mentioned were marks cut in the ground for the most part (though some may have been on boundary stones) to denote the limit of the parish in that particular direction.

There are various entries in Register 3 as to the erection of private seats in the church. Mr. Batchler seems to have allowed this to be freely done. In the extracts given here he voluntarily gives away the Vicarage seat! There is no mention of a faculty, and the arrangement is evidently not approved by a later Vicar.

Whereas a Pew was erected in the Parish Church of Hitchenden in the County of Bucks opposite to the Pulpit in the year 1716 at the expense of Richard Sydenham late of Piggotts Esq<sup>r</sup> and William Widmer late of the Green Gent. and the said Pew not being large enough and sufficient to contain the familys of the above mentioned houses Richard Warre Esq<sup>r</sup> sole Executor and Representative of the said Richard Sydenham has for the use and convenience of himself and family with the advice and consent of us the Minister and Church Wardens of the Parish of Hitchenden built and erected at his own cost and charge a gallery on the North Side of the said Church, the same being in no way incommodious to any person or persons claiming by custom or otherwise a Seat in the said Church: reserving to himself a right for him or his family to sit in the Pew over against the Pulpit as he or they shall think proper, and in the same manner as they used to do before this gallery was erected. To obviate and prevent any dispute which may hereafter arise from any Claimant to the said Gallery or Pew, we have thought proper to enter this memorandum into our Parish Register, in Testimony whereof we have set our hands

It appears, from the Memorandum of Rev<sup>d</sup> J. Batcheler, and Mr. John Anthony, dated June 7. 1740 that the Pew claimed by Mr. Hussey of the Green, in behalf of that Farm, is free for him to sit in conjointly with the Inhabitants of Piggotts Farm. but inasmuch as the said Pew could not be legally alienated from the Parish, so as to become the private Property of any Individuals, by the above named John Batcheler, and John Anthony, nor without a regular Faculty having been obtained, the Churchwardens for the Time being have doubtless a right to place in it any Persons they may think fit during the Periods of divine Service, whenever it shall remain unoccupied by either of the Parties claiming a Right in it, or by their friends, at the Termination of the first Lesson.

Fredk. Vincent, Vicar.*

May 21. 1829.

Mr. Batchler leaves the following—written amongst the unused pages of the 3rd Register in his own hand:—

Memorandum.

The Ellms before the Vicarage House of Hitchenden in the County of Bucks were planted by the Vicar John Batchler at his own expence by leave from Mr. Spencer who rented the Farm then of the R<sup>t</sup> Hon<sup>ble</sup> The Earl of Chesterfield. And the other Ellms leading from the Farm Yard to Church Field Gate were also planted by the said Vicar J. Batchler at his own expence in the Year 1734. The Little Garden before the Vicarage House was also wall'd in at the expence of the said Vicar J. Batchler, Mr. Tho Spencer being then dead and the Vicar J. Batchler one of his Executors and occupying the Farm upon Lease for the use and benefit of Mr. Spencers Children.*

N.B. The Ellms before the Vicarage House were planted February 13, 1723. And the other Ellms leading from the Farm Yard to the Brick Wall and those Ellms leading from the said wall to Church Field Gate were planted in the Year 1734 by

J. Batchler Vicar.

Again, in a short entry in the same volume:

Memorandum. John Batchler Vic<sup>r</sup> of this Parish did at his own cost and charge plant the Six Ellms before the Vicarage House and erect those Rails wherein they are enclosed in Feb 1723. This was done by leave of Thomas Spencer Tenant to y<sup>e</sup> Earl of Chesterfield y<sup>e</sup> ground on which they are planted being part of his Farm. The same year The Cellar was sunk and built at the charge of J. Batchler as also The Passage or Entry which leads to y<sup>e</sup> Pantry.

Most of the Elms still stand, and the additions to the Vicarage House have been doubtless to the convenience of many Vicars since 1723.

In 1725 the Vicar of Hughenden became a pluralist, becoming Rector of Radnage, January 22, on the presentation of George I.

At the end of "Marriages" in Register No. 3:

In the year 1738 Mr. Batchler made his Second Perambulation. It is set down in full in the same handwriting as the First. Not in the Parish Register, but as a separate document deposited in the Churchwardens' Box. It is entitled "A Terrior of the parish of Hughenden Bucks made in the year 1714 and Renewed again in 1738." The whole of the Perambulation of 1714 is set down exactly as before, and then follows—

There is this interesting entry in Mr. Batchler's handwriting on a page in Register 3 after the Marriage entries. Above it is written in pencil "Garden part of ye Churchyard. Cool hand!"—evidently by some later Vicar.

1752. I gave leave to John Seymor y<sup>e</sup> Parish Clark to take a piece of rough ground out of y<sup>e</sup> Church yard to enlarge y<sup>e</sup> garden which Mr. Jenkings my predecessor* gave to Mathew East y<sup>e</sup> Clark. I gave leave also to Mary Cranaway to enclose a little garden next to her house in y<sup>e</sup> Church Yard. I gave Seymor y<sup>e</sup> Clark leave to take into his garden Two apple Trees wch I had grafted in y<sup>e</sup> Church Yard. This inclosure was made March 26, 1752.

N.B. These 2 Gardens may be thrown out again into y<sup>e</sup> Church Yard whenever I or any of my Successors Vicars of Hitchenden shall think fit.

John Batchler Vic<sup>r</sup>.

These enclosures in the Churchyard existed until the "seventies," when it took the united efforts of the Rev. Henry Blagden and Archdeacon Randall to evict the Clerk, and "throw out" the gardens again into the Churchyard. The Clerk never forgave them. He considered he had a freehold!

Last phase of all. Register 4, Burials—
